TOR INVESTMENT.—We offer FOR SALE also one of the TEN PER CENTSEMI-ANNUAL COUPON BONDS of the CITY ON DUBLIQUE, lows. Said Bonds are issued pursuant to provisions of "the Code of lows," the acts of the Legislature, and under the City Charter and resolution of the Common Cennell of the City of Dabuque. Every possible precaution has been taken to render the Bonds valid and to insure the punctual payment of both interest and principal. Apart from the strict conformity to the statutes and Code of lows, the City Charter, and the special vote of the people, there are private contracts of the very strongest character extend into by the City of Dabuque, which would make it a very simple process to efforce the payment of these Bonds, by immediately levying apon the public or private property in the day in case of default. The contracts and the issue of Bonds have been carefully examined by Wm. M. Evarte, esq., Thadders H. Lane, esq., and Mears. Choate & Barnes, and proponed legal and binding in the very strongest manner. These Bonds compare favorably with Bank, State, Insurance and Rullead Stocks as an investment, and are not excelled by any as a size security. The Bonds offered consist of 125 of $1,000 each, and 250 of $500 each. FOR INVESTMENT .- We offer FOR SALE

First, in the completeness of its core. Cancers, if cured at all, must be cured quickly. The time occupied in destroying the scirrbons mass by this remedy varies from ten to forty five minutes. After its removal, the healing process is perfected, and a radical cure obtained in from two to exact weeks. It produces little or no pain, causes no nervous or constitutional derangement, but, in fact, relieves pain, and is the only safe and perfect remedy known. Wens, tumors, moles and birth-marks are also removed in a few minutes.

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Bays the St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood of this city from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his Hair Tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guaraties of truth, the Doctor needs no encominums nor useless pudery from the Press:

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, I was induced to make an application of it noon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three month since I procursed a bottle of your Hair Restorative, and used it. I seen found it was proving what I had wished. I need it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I sam now sixty hear old; my good wife, at the age of fifty-two, has used in which has me effect.

The above notice I deem dee to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use it, as per directions, will not have cocasion to contraint my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and as known to nearly every one here and in the adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair from the effects of yellow fever in Newforkanding, and pastor of the Orthodoc Chunch at Brookreid, Mass. He is agentleman of great influence, and universally beloved.

Espionage of American School Girls in Paris.

The following extract from a recent letter of a young American girl in Paris furnishes an amusing instance of the application of the French Emperor's system:

stance of the application of the French Emperor's system:

"I went to tell you a queer accident that befell me the other day. As my friend—— and I were walking away from the Garden of the Tuileries, about 6 o clock, and talking about Napoleon I, I saw a soidler near us, who happened to overhear the word Napoleon; whereupon he pricked up his ears, picked up his gun, and followed us from there all the way across the bridge, where we, being a little frightened, took a carriage for home. He watched us for a time, and seeing there was nothing wrong, went back. I suppose he took us for conspirators. You know this Napoleon has spics at every corner, and if they hear the name Napoleon, they immediately suspect something is wrong, and try to find you out. He is a horrid man, as you know, and the greatest coward living. All these beautiful things that he is doing to keep his people amused, show as much as anything that he is afraid."

[Evening Post.

AN INCIDENT OF THE EPIDEMIC.—A touching case was presented recently to the consideration and charity of one of the good Samaritans who now take care of the sick, relieve the destitute, and feed the starving. A boy was discovered in the morning lying in the grass of Claiborne street, evidently bright and intelligent, but sick. A man who has the feelings of kindness strongly developed went to him, shook him by the shoulder, and asked him what he was doing there. "Waiting for God to come for me," said he. "What do you mean!" said the gentleman, touched by the pathetic tone of the answer and the condition of the boy, in whose eye and flushed face he saw the evidences of the fever. "God sent for mother, and father, and little brother," said he, "and took them away to his home, up in the sky; and mother told me, when she was sick that God would take care of me. I have no home, nobody to give me anything, and so when she was sick that God would take care of me. I have no home, nobody to give me anything, and so I came out here, and have been looking so long up in the sky for God to come and take care of me, as mother said he would. He will come, won't he? Mother never told me a lie." "Yes, my lad, said the man, overcome with emotion, "he has sent me to take care of you." You should have seen his eyes flash, and the smile of triumph break over his face, as he said, "Mother never told me a lie, Sir; but you've been so long on the way." [N. O. Delta.

STEAM ON FOURTH AVENUE—THE HARLEM RAILROAD CASE.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM—OCT. 29.—Before Judge SUPREMEALAD.

MOTION FOR INJUNCTION DENIED.

Daniel W. Whitney and wife agt. The Mayor, Aldermen, &c., of the City of New-York.

This morning Judge Sutherland rendered an elaborate opinion in this case, vacating the temporary injunction and discharging the order to show cause, with $10 costs. It will be remembered that the plaintiffs obtained the temporary injunction, and order to show cause why it should not be made perpetual, enjoining and restraining the defendants the Mayor &c., from granting permission to the Harlem Railroad Company to run their steam-engines below Forty-second street, and the defendants, the Harlem Railroad Company, from running the same below that point on Fourth avenue, in the complaint upon which the order was made, there was an allegation that some of the members of the present Common Cenneil had received a bribe, or been promised the same, to repeal the ordinance prohibiting the use of steam on the Fourth avenue. In regard to this allegation, the Judge reasons as follows:

make the addicate, and the present addact is no warrant for granting the motion of $10 costs.

John Macgrego act. James Comatock.

The plaintiff brought an action of ejectment, before the code of procedure was adopted, against a tenant in possession of certain premises. The landlerd, with, as must be supposed, the consent of the tenant, employed an attorney to defend the title in the name of the tenant. After a litigation of many years, and two appeals to the Court of Appeals, the defendant succeeded throughout, and entered up his final juliament for costs in both Courts, in his judgment of affirmance. The attorney then applied to the pinintiff for payment, and received a promise to pay at a future day. Before that time had arrived the attorney for the plaintiff applied to the defendant, in whose favor judgment was recovered, and obtained from him a satisfaction piece of both judgments—the one in the Court below, and the judgment of affirmance which was dorected in May, and the judgment of affirmance which was dorected in May, and the judgment which was dorected in May, and the judgment which was dorected in May, and the judgment which was dorected in May, and the funding who had ordered the satisfaction so entered, upon the ground that the same was a fraud upon him, and that the judgments, beling reclusively for costs, were subject to this lien, therefore, until he was paid.

The decisions on this point are so numerous now as to render it improper for a Judge at Special Term to hold otherwise (Ward agt. Wordsworth, 15 E. D. Somith, 506; Sweet act. Bartrell, 4 Sand., 601; Sherwood agt. Bufalo, &c., Raliroad, 12 How, 106; Haight agt. Holdenob, 16 Practice Rep. 160, S. C. p. 1799.

It is also objected that some of the plaintiffs are dead, and that the judgment amont he revived as a them, but this motion is not to revive a judgment, but to the Attorney from what he claims to he affirm practiced upon him. In defenting this failure when the plaintiffs are dead, and that the judgment was the revived as a them to this

DISCONTINUANCE OF A SULT BY LAURA KEENE.

Lears Keene act. John Lesfarge.

Mr. Lefarge, a sole defondant, having died since the action was put at issue, his personal representatives move for an order that it be continued against them as defendants. The plaintiff opposes on the ground that she does not wish to commune it, and cannot be compelled against her will to do so. Motion denied, the Court helding that it is the right of a plainment of verdict, to allow the action to abate, although the cause of action continues, and that a plaintiff in such a case cannot be required on the application of the personal representatives of a deceased sole defendant to continue it. Section 121 of the Coulombas not changed in this respect the precising rule. Motion denied, without costs.

Tital Term—Before Judge Wooderer.

TRIAL TREM-Refore Judge Woodkorr.

The parties stipulating that the General Term shall dismiss the complaint, if of the opinion that defendant's motion therefor at the trial ought to have been granted, or reduce the amount of the verdict to $118 No, if of opinion that the phisriff are certified to recover that sum only. The Court ordered the exceptions to be heard in the first instance at the Ceneral Term, judyment, in the mean time, to be suspended.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Oct. 29.—Before Judge
C. Struver and others agt. The Ocean Insurance Company of the City of New-York.

Plaintiffs brought a suit on five promissory notes given by defendants to plaintiffs for marine lesses which occurred early in the year 1837, and which defendants were unable to pay at the time when the lesses fell due, and therefore gave heir five promissory notes, which were not paid when they fell due.
The defendants put in an answer that they were informed and believed, a short time before the plaintiffs with was brought, that the vessel Mary C. Haskell which sailed from New York, fore she sailed; that part of the notes, amounting to $2,500, were given for less of part of the carge on board said vessel, and insured by the plaintiffs, that, therefore, the defendants had given said notes for a loss which they were not liable to pay that the rest of the notes, amounting to $2,500, had been given some time in April, 1857, and that upon the adjustment of this less the said notes were given, but that they had been given some time in April, 1857, and that upon the adjustment of this less the said notes were given, but that they had been informed that the vessel had been sold by plaintiffs. Defendants also answered, that another action brought by the same plaintiff against these defendants was pending in the Supreme Court, under the Stantist of Proceedings against Corporations in Equity, in which action the plaintiffs, as creditors of defendants, ask for an injunction against the company, restraining them from exercising any corporate powers, &c., and for a Receiver, on the ground of the insolvency of the company, so that the assets of the company be ratably distributed among all the creditors.

The plaintiffs now move to strike out the answer as sham, frivolous and irrelevant, and for judgment on their complaint.

The cour granted the motion, on the ground of the answer being frivolous and irrelevant, with $10 costs, unless defendants serve an amended and answer within five days. B. Ro

BOARD CF SUPERVISORS.

FRIDAY, Oct. 29, 1858.—The Board met yesterday, President PURDY in the chair.

ANCIENT MINES IN NERRESTA.—A few works are, there were discovered on the Weeping Water, 11 miles from Nebraska City, what appeared to be the remains of ancient shafts and drifts, dug for mining purposes. The discovery excited some attention at the time, but no efforts were made to investigate the subject. A few days ago, as we learn from The Nebraska City News, a company of gentlemen residing in that city armed themselves with shovels and picknaxes, and repaired to the spot, for the purpose of ascertaining further information about these silent vestiges of a past people. They found the trenches to be from 20 to 30 feet wide, and, on making excavations at the bottom, broken rocks were discovered, tions at the bottom, broken rocks were discovered, indicating that blasting had been pursued in forming the trenches. The Nebraska News thinks that the excavations were made in search of lead.
